

Your Donation

Your donation supports the UC Center for Public Engagement with Science's vision of expanding and enriching the interface between science and the public to benefit all stakeholders.

Donations can fund student internships, local events about science, interdisciplinary research into effective public engagement with science, and more.

For UC Students

- $2,200 Web and Social Media student internship
- $5,500 PEWS undergraduate student internship (one semester)
- $5,500 Sustainability graduate student fellowship (one semester)
- $11,000 PEWS graduate student internship (one semester)
- $20,000 Public Engagement with Science training for 20 graduate students, culminating in five student-led outreach projects with community partners

For the Public

- $10,000 Online teacher resources for Recipes for Science textbook
- $10,000 Sponsorship of science event with a community partner, including videoing for online distribution
- $15,000 Professional development in philosophy of science for 20 K-12 in-service science teachers

Capacity-Building and Research

- $7,000 Open access publication for one volume of Cambridge Elements in Public Engagement with Science series
- $22,000 Graduate Student Editorial Assistant for Cambridge Elements in Public Engagement with Science series (one year)
- $28,000 Public Engagement with Science faculty fellowship (one semester)
- $80,000 Public Engagement with Science postdoctoral fellowship (one year)

 @UCEngageScience

 @UCEngageScience

 UC Center for Public Engagement with Science

 @ucengagingscience

DONATE

foundation.uc.edu/PublicEngagement